

Two exterior finishes. Three interior finishes.

With product types ranging from recessed ceiling to large-area pendants, the STUDIO LINE aesthetic can easily be carried throughout an entire building. The collection continues to grow with new products designed to illuminate atriums, hallways, dining areas and much more. Commercial or residential, grand foyers or cozy reading nooks, the STUDIO LINE Collection has a solution for every application.

A warm family home filled with BEGA

Architect Christian Morschel and his family of five fulfilled their long-held dream of building an entirely custom home. The result is a modern space with clean lines and a simple aesthetic, featuring BEGA luminaires inside and out.
